New Shyam Nagar is a slum providing shelters to thousands of people coming from different parts of the country in search of making a livelihood. Originating from a remote village named Bela in Uttar Pradesh, Khushi and her family migrated to Delhi for better living. Khushi now lives in B-43, New Shyam Nagar Jhuggi with her family. Being a sincere student of Sarvodaya Kanya Vidyalay, Chand Nagar, she has just passed her class 10th board exam with 64% marks. But the journey of her success does not come so easily. Her father Lal Chand works as a driver and her mother is a home maker. Their life comprises of everyday's struggle but they never give up. And now her family members are overwhelmed with her success at the board exam. Her bonding with CSSAR is very strong as she was firstly introduced to our remedial classes at primary level. It is our teacher Sardeep Kaur at New Shyam Nagar centre who made her grow interest in studies at her primary school days and thus she started performing well. On her secondary level, she took admission in our Raghbir Nagar centre. There she attributes her teacher Yogita for success. She says- "Without Ma'am we can never score good marks in the board exam." Despite the odds she and her family face every day, Khushi wants to pursue higher studies. Motivated deeply by her Yogita ma'am, she aspires to be a good teacher like her in future.
