

Divya Devpriya is a Senior delivery manager with a large IT MNC, she has done her Economics and Math honours from Fergusson College, Pune. She has masters in business administration from Delhi University. She has worked as an SAP implementation and Risk compliance expert with several international clients. Divya has been part of the Delhi Whiteboard since its inception; she has been associated with several NGOs -whiteboard projects for example - Kutumbh, Etasha, Ashish Foundation and now CSSAR. Divya is currently a sitting board member with Ashish Foundation.

Nandita Banerjee aged 40 years has a Master's in Business Administration and Master's in Economics. She started her career in banking and changed over to the development sector after a year of employment in the corporate sector. Nandita has worked with Help Age India, Dignity Foundation and National University of Singapore dealing with issues of Ageing. At present she is employed with Pratham at ASER Centre where she works with the Capacity Building Team to strengthen the knowledge and skills of the employees. She has received training from the International Institute of Ageing in Malta, World Bank, New Delhi. Nandita has a considerable experience for working with children, older persons and animal welfare organizations. Education, Human Rights, Environment Sustainability and Animal Welfare are causes that are close to her heart and offers her voluntary services for their betterment.

Shashi Pal, 59 lives in Delhi. He holds degrees in B.Sc and Master Mariner. He served in Merchant Navy for 35 years and retired as captain in 2017. He is compassionate towards underprivileged children. He wishes that every child should get quality education irrespective of her social or financial status. Currently he teaches children voluntarily in a Govt Primary School of Delhi. He has helped many needy persons in past on different occasions. Educating school children gives him incredible pleasure. He helps CSSAR through his invaluable suggestions.

Yogendra Jha, aged 56 years, has done M.A. in Sociology and Diploma in Labour Laws. He started his career as lecturer in an Inter College at Deoghar where he taught for around eight years and went on to work as an Assistant Director in the Employees' Provident Fund Organization (EPFO), Ministry of Labour, Govt. of India for twelve years. During his service in the EPFO, he conducted several studies for rickshaw pullers, barbers and bidi rollers on social security related issues. It was during the course of these studies that he got to work closely with laborers especially rickshaw pullers in Delhi and was moved by their sad plight. In 2004 he started working with them and helped form twenty self-help groups for rickshaw pullers and maids. Later on he started teaching slum children on weekends. These classes were mostly held in temples and public places and went on like till 2007. In 2008 he founded Center for Social Security Action & Research (CSSAR) and in the same year quit his job to work full time for CSSAR and devote all his focus and energy to the group. He envisions a society where every child gets proper education irrespective of social and financial background.

Archana Bhutani, aged 56 years, has done B.Sc. and B.Ed. She started her career as a science teacher in DAV school in Delhi and later on taught science at a govt. school in Delhi. She has been associated with CSSAR since March 2010 and helps us in our education program in several ways. Being a qualified trained teacher, she knows teaching methodologies quite well, especially in the science subject. She has utilized her valuable experience in guiding our teachers and imparting teaching skills from time to time part from guidance in teaching, she has been very helpful in the overall development of CSSAR. She actively participates in the board meetings and her insights and inputs have contributed greatly in various achievements.

Amarjit Mohanty, 41 lives in Delhi. He holds an MBA degree and works as the Credit Manager in HDFC Finance. He believes in “Education for Every Children” and has been associated with CSSAR for its work with underprivileged children.

Himanshu Katiyar, aged, 39 is a senior software developer in a large MNC in Bangalore. He has an MCA degree. He has an urge to work with underprivileged children and thus has been associated with CSSAR.

GOVERNING BOARD

Name	Age	Gender	Occupation	Position on Board	Photo
Divya Devpriya	44	F	Service Delivery Manager, IBM India	President
Nandita Banerjee	40	F	Development Sector Professional	Vice President
Shashi Pal	59	M	Ex- Captain, Merchant Navy	Vice President
Yogendra Jha	56	M	Former Assistant Director, EPFO, Ministry of Labour, Govt. of India.	Secretary
Archana Bhutani	56	F	Former School Teacher	Treasurer
Amarjit Mohanty	41	M	Credit Manager, HDFC Finance	Executive Member
Himanshu Katiyar	39	M	Senior Software Developer	Executive Member

None of the board member is related by blood or marriage