

SAYANI:DREAM HIGH, SHINE BRIGHT

When a child is fostered with love and care, their artistic faculties find room to grow. Some children make the best of the privilege of time and resources that they have at their disposal. Such a child was Sayani Das, now a capable and independent young adult aged 22.

Born to Chittaranjan Das, a factory worker, Sayani grew up in a nuclear family in Raghubir Nagar. She started taking remedial classes at CSSAR under Yogita Ma'am and spoken English classes from class 6th to 10th under the tutelage of Poonam ma'am. Sayani had been a connoisseur of art since her childhood, showing great interest in sketching and drawing. The stable family life coupled with an abundance of emotional support as well as encouragement from the parents allowed Sayani to tread the path towards her passion. As she got older, her interest in art refined itself into designing. She was trained in designing by an NGO.

Sayani was able to transform her dream of becoming a fashion designer into reality through incessant hard work and dedication that brought her to her destination. Currently Sayani works as a fashion designer at Femin India, Shadipur. Her work is much praised and admired by her superiors as well as her colleagues. Besides, she is pursuing M.A. in English from IGNOU. She is a model of inspiration for young girls who aspire to dream higher and shine brighter.
