Hello, I am Rakshanda.M. I love to come to the Kapoor ward where they teach children. It is moving by Samiksha foundation. Here children come and play puzzles, read and write even read story books. I love to come here. I even take and go books from here. There is a library here. Here teachers are very kind and good. I love to come here and play, read and write and I have many of the friends here. Coming here i have got many advantages i don't miss my school friends. When i miss the studies i take it from here. Here Teachers teaches very well. So, when i go home i always tell my brother about what i did and how much fun i had in the school. They conduct activities, competitions and give prizes to children. This is the place where someone can show its own creativity. I love coming here. I am in ~~class~~ class VI I read english, Maths here.
