Give As You Earn (GAYE) Success Stories

- Please provide two key success stories of beneficiaries (with high resolution action pictures of the beneficiary).

Success Story Template

The Situation

She is Soundaraya child marriage, single parent, dropout from the school. Police handover to our home last year, we given moral support. Her attempt 10th class exams and she learned Beauty parlour course. Herself confidence to do something for the betterment of the life. When she is joined in the training she did not know anything to do. We have identified her skills and involve her in beauty parlour course. We have given practice regular learning her different methods. She learned everything. Now she is working, earned Rs. 6000/- P.M, she is very happy.

The Hero or the Focus of the Story

She is Kalyani, parents are uneducated, very poor. They don't want to support her studies. She is joined 2 years back in our home. She completed Inter. Now she learned computer course and working in Bank as outsourcing person. She is getting Rs. 9000/- P.M she is very happy and studying B.COM correspondence.

The Change or the Uniqueness in the Story You wish to Highlight

One root cause that has been discovered for the slow growth in women education is the attitude of poor parents towards educating girl children. This problem is changing day by day women perusing good carriers and also achieving equal success with their male counter parts. Women are showing increase passion and more aggression towards their work.

The Conclusion

Women want to make a carrier and then settle down in their life. Skill development courses of appropriate duration can be made available to make them job ready or ready for self employment. Better employment opportunities. Efforts also need to involve families.

Quotes (:

Real difference in the lives they build self confidence and leadership skills to utilize their talents. Develop a passion for learning if you do you grows.
