

Mr Naba Kishor holds a master degree in Social work and a management Diploma from XIMB. Prior to ABMSS, he has worked over 12 years in several International and national non-profits in the areas of Advocacy, campaign, communications and social research.

He has authored two Odia poetry books and contributed more than 100 articles in English as well as in Odia vernaculars. He has received several awards for his writings; including the prestigious Laadli Media Award 2017 for outstanding writings on gender sensitivity and women's right. He handles communications, newsletter and outreach activities.