Major General (Dr) Arvind Sharma (Veteran)
Executive President and Chairman of the Board of Governors
International Organisation for Educational Development

Dear General,

It is a matter of honour for me to place on record my appreciation to the International Organisation for Educational Development (IOED), for the commendable effort in synergizing international effort, various education related organisations globally and tirelessly working for finding practical solutions to make the future citizen an 'Ideal global Citizen' endowed with Human Values. In a short span of five years, it has been able to network various global organisations to synergies educational efforts to make empowered, skilled, prosperous and crime free global society.

I compliment each member of the IOED team for their commendable effort.
